

You are reading the BONUS Bulletin 12/2009. The bulletin is published bi-weekly, informing about important news and activities in the BONUS community. If you wish to unsubscribe, please send an e-mail to tiina.tembe@bonuseeig.fi.

Baltic Sea Science Congress draft declaration

Baltic Sea Science Congress, Tallinn, 17-21 September was completed by adoption of the draft declaration on the role of science in preserving the Baltic Sea (Tallinn Declaration draft:

www.bonusportal.org/files/456/Tallinn_Declaration_Draft_2009-08-31.pdf). The next Congress in St. Petersburg, August 2011 will be organized together by Baltic Marine Biologists, Baltic Sea Geologists, Conference of Baltic Oceanographers and BONUS. More about BSSC in www.bssc2009.org.

BONUS Clustering meeting on Scenarios, Processes and Models – register by 30.9.

BONUS project coordinators and interested scientists from the BONUS programme are invited to join the Clustering meeting on Scenarios, Processes and Models, organized on 15 October, at 17.30-19 in Norrköping. Programme and registration info can be found from the BONUS Portal Extranet, or ask for details from tiina.tembe@bonuseeig.fi. Registration deadline is 30 September 2009! The clustering meeting is followed by ECOSUPPORT workshop “The marine ecosystem in changing climate – on the added value of coupled climate-environmental modeling for the Baltic Sea” on 16 October. Please visit www.baltex-research.eu/ecosupport/ for more details on the workshop.

BONUS Annual Conference 2010

The annual conference of BONUS programme will be held 19-21 January 2010 in Vilnius, Lithuania. The conference includes sessions for the Forum of Project Coordinators and the Young Scientist Club. Programme, registration information etc. will be published soon.

EurOcean newsletter 16 September 2009

EurOcean issued its regular electronic newsletter on 16th October. Among other news, EO NL features information about EU proposal on fishing possibilities in the Baltic in 2010. Read the whole newsletter at http://www.bonusportal.org/files/460/eurocean_newsletter_16_September_2009.doc. The EurOcean newsletter can be subscribed at eurocean@fct.mctes.pt.

best regards,

BONUS EEIG Secretariat